Day 10 (Genesis 20-21)

CONSIDERING CONTENT

Why do you think this story is here? What insight does it give us?

What is the sin(s) of Abraham?

Why do you think that Sarah would want Hagar and Ishmael to be sent away?

How does God provide for Hagar, although she is outside of God's covenant promise?

APPLYING ACTION

Who in your life is, or has been an "Abimelech" – one who bravely sets you straight?

Where might God be calling you to be an "Abimelech" for someone else?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

Day 12 (Genesis 24)

CONSIDERING CONTENT

What do you make of the role each plays in the fulfillment of Abraham's wish (and God's plan)

1. the chief steward?
2. Rebecca?
3. Laban and Bethuel?

What do you find most compelling about the steward: his earnest piety? Transparent faith? Practical methods? Devotion to his master? Firm resolve?

What qualities do you see about Rebecca that you like?

APPLYING ACTION

What do we learn here about God and our lives? To what extent do we involve God in the decisions we have to make?

Day 15 (Genesis 29-30)

CONSIDERING CONTENT

Compare Gen 24:10-32 with this passage. How do you account for the similarities in how Isaac and Jacob met their respective mates: Providence? Like father like son? Something else?

What do you learn about Jacob, Leah, and Rachel in chapter 29?

Jacob:

Leah:

Rachel:

What seems to be the main problem in this mixed-up, messed up family?

APPLYING ACTION

How does sin affect not just one but the whole family? Pray for your family in closing and that they would obey God and it would be passed on from generation to generation.
